Incident Summary: On October 4, 2017 at 9:55 p.m., Columbus Police responded to 251 N 17th Ave on a shooting call. Upon arrival, officers made contact with a female victim who was suffering from a single gunshot wound to the upper left shoulder. The victim was transported to Grant Hospital in stable condition.

The victim stated she was involved in an argument with her ex-boyfriend, Michael A Champion II. Mr. Champion confronted the victim and her new boyfriend at her residence. The two men got into a physical altercation and the victim ran to her house to get help. When she returned the fight was over, however; Mr Champion retrieved a shotgun and began firing at her as she and her boyfriend ran away.

A warrant for one count of felonious assault was filed for Michael A Champion II.
